WEEKLY CROP REPORT

SNOW FALLS ON SUMMIT OF MALEAKALA ON 13TH

HEAVY SHOWERS ON OAHU—DRY WEEK ON MAUI—BIG HILO RAINS—THUNDER STORMS.

For the Week Ending Mar. 17, 1906. Local Office, U. S. Weather Bureau, Honolulu, T. H., March 19, 1906.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

The week was marked by partly cloudy weather and a continuation of temperatures somewhat below the normal, the nights during the latter portion of the week being especially cool. Light variable winds and fair weather early in the week were followed on the 15th and 16th by strong southerly to westerly winds attended by showery and unsettled weather in practically all sections of the group. Light thunderstorms accompanied the rain in many localities.

In the northern portion of the Hilo district of Hawaii, the rainfall was quite heavy, but in other sections of the big island the showers were rather light. In Maui, heavy local rains occurred in the vicinity of Nahiku, but the week was quite dry in all other sections. Fairly heavy showers fell in both leeward and windward Oahu, and in eastern and northern Kauai.

Snow fell on the summit of Haleakala mountain, in Maui, on the 13th. REMARKS BY CORRESPONDENTS. (Note: The figures following the name of a station indicate the day of the month with which the week's report closes.)

How to get votes to win a place in the BULLETIN'S $2000 Contest

The Bulletin office has been asked a hundred times in the last week, by contestants and their friends, for a list of its subscribers. This cannot be granted, as it would be unfair to the persons not having the list. The real, live, earnest prize-winning way is for contestants to solicit votes from ALL their friends—if they already take the paper (which is likely), then their votes on old subscriptions may be secured; if they do not now take The Bulletin, it is up to the vote-hunter to see they subscribe at once, thereby getting the needed vote coupon and placing in the hands of the new subscribers the best newspaper published in the Territory of Hawaii.

The prizes are a $1400 REO TOURING CAR, 16 horsepower, seating five people. The Second Prize is a $350 KROEGER PIANO; Third, a $5000 INSURANCE POLICY; Fourth, a SILVER PUNCHBOWL; Fifth, a $40 STORE ORDER; Sixth, a DOMESTIC SEWING MACHINE; Seventh, a LEATHER GOLF BAG and SET OF STICKS; Eighth, a WINCHESTER REPEATING RIFLE; Ninth, a SOLE LEATHER SUIT CASE; Tenth, a KODAK DEVELOPING MACHINE.
